AMUSEMENTS.

There is something charming in a bright woman as she fiftred her head and utters the words "Don't Care." To be charmed with a really clean representation of the cleverest woman of her time, one should see Miss Marion Abbott in the play of "Madame Sans Gene," at the Opera House next Thursday, October 21st. Miss Abbott will be assisted in the presentation of the historical personage Madame Sans Gene, by Mr. A. Franke, who plays the part of Napoleon. We all know Madame Sans Gene to have been one of the favorices of the would be conqueror of Europe, Napoleon Bonaparte, and as she shone replendent during his brilliant reign of the French, her association with Bonaparte lends additional interest to the play. The comedy of Madame Sans Gene, is conceeded to be the masterpiece of the peerless dramatist the gifted Sardou, whose pen has produced the best plays ever presented to the translation, the text has been so closely followed that Madame Sans Gene in the best plays ever presented to the critical audiences of Paris, and in the translation, the text has been so closely followed, that Madame Sans Gene in English has been pronounced to be an exact representation given in the French capital. All the scenery in the play, has been copied direct from that used in the original production, therefore we can have the pleasure of seeing this great attraction as given in its entire production, whose run was unprecedented in the gayest metropolis of the world, "Madame Sans Gene" was the sobrique given Catherine Hubscher, a bright and clever laundress of Paris, who went to the front with the French troops, and followed the fortunes of Bonaparte in his many battles for the mastery of Europe. She was a child of fortune, and rose from the ranks of the common people to be the She was a child of fortune, and rose from the ranks of the common people to be the wife of Lefebvre, the emperor's favorite marshall. Her great wit, and perfect indifference was refreshing to his majesty, and though he had known her in her humble days, her remarkable uncultivated talents won her his friendship, when he ascended the throne. The comedy being so full of history, cannot fail to be one of the most attractive productions to be seen in the city this season, and all lovers of pure comedy should see Madame Sans Gene, the most artistic performance of the day.

OPERA TO BE REPEATED. The Gonzalez company gave a very pleasing and artistic production of Gilbert & Sullivan's popular creation, "Mikado," at the Grand Opera house last night. There was an excellent audience and the many enjoyable solos and choruses, as well as the bright and witty dialogue, kept the audience in continual good humor. "The Mikado" will be repeated at the bargain matinee. "Chimes of Normandy" made such agronounced hit that at the special request of many patrons of the ial request of many patrons of the Grand it will be sung to-night, when the engagement closes.

PAYTON'S BIG COMEDY COMPANY. It is seldom that such an opportunity s offered the public to witness highclass dramatic productions at popular class dramatic productions at popular prices as Manager Feinler has made possible by booking Payton's Big Comedy company for a solid week at the Grand Opera house, beginning Monday evening. The opening bill will be the famous drama, "Alone in London," and a superb scenic production is promised. There are no stars in the Payton company, or to put it more praparly, they pany, or to put it more properly, they are all stars. Between acts each even-ing a series of refined and novel speclattles are introduced, and the famous war views are projected upon a canvas by one of Edison's latest inventions,

WHAT IS YOUR TRADE! Each Trade or Occupation Has its Special Disease.

It is well known among medical men that certain diseases are more readily developed in certain occupations than in others. That each occupation has its attendant physical weakness. Engineers, railroad men and similar occupations suffer mostly from kidney troubles, and men who are often exposed to the weather suffer from rheumatism, while clerks and professional men, in fact the army of people whose business keeps them indoors, are often-times great sufferers from piles and constipation. In this connection the following letter is of interest to people whose occupation will not allow sufficient outdoor exercise.

Mr. A. F. Calhoun, notary public and feweler and watchmaker, of Circleville, W. Va., writes as follows:

I had been a severe sufferer from piles for years, and had tried many remedies with but little benefit, when about three years ago I saw the Pyramid Pile Cure advertised, and sent for it.

I was badly afflicted when I got it, but after only two applications the piles disappeared, and from that day to this I have never felt a symptom of the pations suffer mostly from kidney

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Misnaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

The stories being circulated in Martin's Ferry that Mark Hanna is a labor crusher are not believed. Senator Hanna In his speech to a monster crowd at Paulding, said: "All I can say for myself is that I am a Republican. So was self is that I am a Republican. So was my father before me. All my energies have been devoted to the building up of my native state. I was born here. I have always lived here and I am proud of Ohlo. No matter what may be the result of the campaign I will go on as I have and treat the men in my em-ploy fairly and squarely. I always fight in the open and I am thus fighting in this campaign. When this contest night in the open and I am thus fighting in this campaign. When this contest is ended I have the consciousness of knowing that I have stood squarely before the Buckeye people. My candidace is nothing. It is the principle for which I stand. The charge that I have ever intentionally wronged any man or done at act of injustice to any man in my employ is false and cannot be proven. For my proof I would refer you to any man in my employ."

EACH SIDE GETS ONE-HALF.

An interesting will case has been set-tled. Samuel Compher is the execu-tor of Samuel Winrod, who willed most tor of Samuel Winrod, who willed most of his property to the missionary society of the M. E. church at Flushing and left only small bequests to relatives. Suit was brought to set aside the will and the settlement provides that the legacies and all costs shall be divided equally between the contesting parties, the heirs to get one-half and the missionary society one-half.

BOTH CASES DISMISSED.

BOTH CASES DISMISSED.

Yesterday George and William Miller, of Pleasant Grove, were arrested by Constable T. H. Stanton and brought to Martin's Ferry charged with treatening to kill M. J. O'Connor, of that place. It was discovered that the Millers had made the same charge against O'Connor before 'Squire T. C. Mercer, of Pleasant Grove, and last night the parties got together and both cases were dismissed.

BIG SALE OF WOOL

While it was not expected that the price of wool would advance much so soon after the passage of the Dingley bill, 14.47 pounds of wool, the last five years' clips, were sold by Ellis Fulton, of Nottingham township, near Cadiz, at 28 cents per pound, to Welsh & Carnahan, the well-known wool buyers.

Hon, C. L. Weems, Hon, E. B. Armstrong and Hon, C. J. Howard will address a Republican meeting at Powhatan on the afternoon of Saturday, October 23. The Republicans of this county have not been making a great campaign because the people generally are so well pleased with the trend of affairs that they do not care much for politics. They want business to go on undisturbed. The Republicans never presented a cleaner or better county ticket than that of this year. It ought to win and it will win.

One lone saloon keeper in this city was indicted by the grand jury for Sanday selling and that one in the quietest part of town. But the operations of a grand jury are not always searching.
